IBJ’s CFO of the Year Awards will be presented to financial professionals in Indiana for outstanding performance in their roles as financial stewards of corporations and not-for-profit organizations. This program provides many benefits to the business community by highlighting the growing importance of the contributions and accomplishments of financial executives.

An independent panel of judges will be appointed to select award recipients in the following categories: Public Company CFO, Private Company CFO and Not for Profit / Government CFO.

The CFO award winners will be honored at a breakfast event in December 2016. IBJ will also publish a supplement that will include a profile on each honoree.

The Contributing Sponsors of IBJ’s CFO of the Year event will receive the following:

- Sponsors will be recognized from the podium at the beginning and end of the breakfast
- Additional copies of the CFO of the Year Supplement will be distributed at the breakfast
- One quarter square, 4-color ad in the CFO of the Year supplement which is inserted in the December 5, 2016 issue of Indianapolis Business Journal
- One (1) Table of ten (10) at the CFO of the Year awards breakfast with corporate table signage
- Company name listed on all applicable CFO of the Year marketing materials:
  - Minimum of four (4) full page 4-color promotional advertisements in IBJ
  - One 4-color promotional advertisement in Indiana Lawyer
  - CFO Event Invitation – 18,000 to be inserted in IBJ
  - Digital ads on IBJ.com and IBJ e-mail publications when available
  - E-vite to all 30,000+ IBJ Daily subscribers
  - Event Program
  - A half page “thank you” ad recognizing sponsors in the CFO of the Year Supplement

Contributing Sponsorship Investment: $4,950 net

Maximum of eight (8) contributing sponsors